

War, Realpolitik, and Fatherland: German Unification and the Path to Empire

Short description

Travel back in time to the era of German Unification during the latter half of the 19th century. In this committee, you will take on the persona of historical figures ranging from Karl Marx to Otto Von Bismarck, navigating the events and political struggle leading up to German unification. Unlike traditional committees, you as a delegate will have the power to directly influence the course of this history, with special mechanisms at your disposal. Prepare for political alliances, backstabbing, and total war at MCC's inaugural Crisis Committee!
